A special person: Fernanda

Fernanda Espinosa was born in San Pedro in Honduras in 1973. She is the fourth of eleven children. Her father was a teacher and her mother worked as a cleaning woman for rich people. Her father, Mr. David Espinosa taught her science at secondary school. He inspired her with a love of learning. He was the best teacher she ever had.

She always looked very serious but she had a great sense of humor. She was interested in reading and she told great stories. Her life idol was Mother Teresa, she has always thought about her words "I can do no great things, only small things with great love".

When Fernanda was at school, one of her friends lost his parents and moved to an orphanage because he had no other family members to live with. Fernanda visited him at the orphanage and felt very sorry for the children there, so she decided to work with orphans to try to give them a good life.

Fernanda met her husband Emilio in 1997 and they got married in 2000. They opened an orphanage in 2006 near Quito and they still work together. They started with ten children and now they have sixty-three children living in the orphanage.

Fernanda is a hero because she gives her life to help children. She is an amazing woman who deserves admiration and respect for all what she does.
