Text

Childhood memories are golden times to everyone. My childhood memories are so precious to me as well. After those long years, I still remember and miss my best teachers. A good teacher can teach you something that you will remember for a day, but a great teacher will teach you something that you will remember for the rest of your life. Teachers are much like a second parent. They shape a child's personality and future.

I was lucky enough to find all these qualities in my teacher of English. Mrs. Anita Ma'am in primary school. She has influenced who I am as a person. She taught me to work hard and always do my best. I would describe her as a very caring, cheerful and good-hearted. She taught me to be self-confident, believe in myself and never give up because this is the only way that leads to success.

When she asked me about the job I want to do in the future, my answer was that I want to be a successful entrepreneur. I have always been fascinated by creating something new, leading a team and being my own boss. Mrs. Anita advised me to read books as much as I can and to cultivate my skills in networking and marketing.

The best teachers are the ones who do not only care about how you grow in their classes, but how you grow as a person. Mrs. Anita taught us skills that make us better people and better leaders. Good teachers are a gift of God to us.
