Text: My favourite Teacher

In my school life, I've changed a couple of schools and met with so many amazing teachers, but I have never found someone like my favourite teacher. He used to teach us English.

His name is Habib Haroun; he is from Hamadine. He was a small and fat man with a short grey hair and brown eyes. He was cheerful, sociable and patient. He liked football very much. He was also fond of travelling.

He started teaching in 1994; his voice was really sweet and he used to advise us in the class. He was very punctual and had never been late in class. His teaching style was special and a little bit different from other teachers of English; he was innovative. We respected him so much and he loved us, especially when we complete our homework.

Besides teaching, he used to head the local club of MRH. He was really motivating and marvellous personality that all the citizens liked.

He died on December 20th, 2021 leaving a wife, three sons and three daughters. I shall never forget my best memories with him.
