Level :4ms.....

Citizenship is a necessary matter because it is a part of the social organization of any country, It is the citizen's relationship to the place in which he lives, or to the country to which he belongs, even if he was not born on its land.

How can we call someone a good citizen? It's not easy , however, let's agree that if you want to be a good citizen, you have to be a good person first. Someone who is aware of his rights, duties and responsibilities towards his family, his neighbors, his friends and his community in general, is a good citizen.

I believe that there are many things that reflect your principles as a good citizen in your country. When you help others and volunteer to provide your services to them on your own free will, in this case, you are a good citizen.

A good citizen automatically encourages and promotes a good son/ daughter. It helps to improve the relations between family members and friends. So, one must be a good citizen for a happy and peaceful living life .
