Moufdi_Zakaria

The poet of the Algerian revolution

Zakaria Chikh as was his actual name was born on April 12th, 1908 in Bni Yezguen (Ghardaia). He studied in Annaba then in Tunis where he learnt to use both Arabic and French. During his stay in Tunis, he met and became a friend of Abou el Kacem Chebbi and Ramdhane Hamoud. and there he was given the nickname of Moufdi by a school friend.

Once back in Algeria, he has been imprisoned many times for almost 4 years. When he was freed, he joined the Algerian revolution in 1955. The French arrested him again in April 1956 and he spent 3 years in Serkadji.

Moufdi Zakaria was courageous, sensitive, eloquent, active, perseverant and intellectual. All these personality traits made of him one of the greatest Algerian poets. Moufdi is most known for the Algerian national anthem which he wrote. He also has two famous groups of poetry named 'allahab al mouqaddass' and 'ilyadat aljazair'... He holds a certificate of recognition for all his literary work and his activism in the service of national culture issued by President Chadli Bendjedid on July 8th, 1987, as well as the medal "El-Athir" of the national order of merit, awarded by President Abdelaziz Bouteflika on July 4th, 1999 (given to his family). Moufdi Zakaria died in 1977 in Tunisia but his body was buried in Algeria.

I write

Objective : by the end of this session the PPs will be able to work with a group of partners to write an argumentative texts using sequencers

Target structure

Sequencers (firstly , secondly , thidly /first , second , third)

The 1st stage

The teacher helps his PPs to remember the most famous advice came in the mother's letter to her daughter.

Then , the teacher checks the home work given to the PPs during the last session (task 24 page 100) and invites some of the learners to share their answers.

The 2nd stage : A class debate (listening and speaking)

- Using think –aloud and share strategy , all the pupils should take part in this debate.
- The PPS should listen to their classmates and take notes.

T : The mother advises her daughter to “fight and die ”for her opinion.

What does she mean by that?

Is she right ?

Who are for ? who are against ?

Those who are for ,should give one or more arguments.

Those who are against should give one or more arguments.

And you, will you fight and die for your opinion ?

The 3rd stage I write

When the class debate is over ,the PPs are invited to work with a group of partners and write a short report to summerize the classmates opinions and arguments .

The teacher explains and shows the PPs how order and their arguments

T : To sequence (to put in order) your arguments in an argumentative text , you can use the following sequencers :

First/ Firstly (for the 1st argument) ; Second/Secondly (for the 2nd argument) ; Third/ Thirdly (for the 3rd argument).

T : Firstl, Secondly ,Thirdly are more formal than First,Second,Third

T : You can use : The first ,second, third argument/ point is.....

The PPs can use the following lay out to write their reports :

Those of our classmates who agree with Jana's mother put forward the following arguments , Firstly , they think that

Secondly ,Thirdly ;.....

Those who disagree argue that

	The presentation	The teacher starts by helping the PPs to remember the main points which came in the mother's letter and refreshing the PPs' minds about the use of imperative to give advice and how to form its positive and negative. Discuss with your partner and share: T: When the mother advises her daughter to “ go through the world with open eyes” she means : a) “Pay attention and don't ignore people around you” And that also means b) “You should pay attention and you shouldn't ignore the people around you . T : Now consider the statements a and b and tell us the differences you can notice . “ The teacher elicits the differences between giving advice using imperative / using the modal verb I should The teacher highlights rules In English, one way to ask for or give advice is using the modal verb SHOULD. We can make this type of question using Should I + verb...?	T/L	Giving the opportunity to the learners to guess and elicit the new structure highlighting rules	W board	a/v

	Practice	For example: • Should I eat or Should I visit the doctor ? One common way to respond to a question with SHOULD is to also use SHOULD in the answer. You can start by saying: • I think you should + verb* • I think you shouldn't+verb..... Remember we say : he should/ she should.	T/L

T : To sequence (to put in order) your arguments in an argumentative text , you can use the following sequencers :

First/ Firstly (for the 1st argument) ; Second/Secondly (for the 2nd argument) ; Third/ Thirdly (for the 3rd argument).

T : Firstl, Secondly ,Thirdly are more formal than First,Second,Third

T : You can use : The first ,second, third argument/ point is.....

The PPs can use the following lay out to write their reports :

Those of our classmates who agree with Jana's mother put forward the following arguments , Firstly , they think that

Secondly ,Thirdly ;.....

Those who disagree argue that

	The presentation	The teacher starts by helping the PPs to remember the main points which came in the mother's letter and refreshing the PPs' minds about the use of imperative to give advice and how to form its positive and negative. Discuss with your partner and share: T: When the mother advises her daughter to “ go through the world with open eyes” she means : a) “Pay attention and don't ignore people around you” And that also means b) “You should pay attention and you shouldn't ignore the people around you . T : Now consider the statements a and b and tell us the differences you can notice . “ The teacher elicits the differences between giving advice using imperative / using the modal verb I should The teacher highlights rules In English, one way to ask for or give advice is using the modal verb SHOULD. We can make this type of question using Should I + verb...?	T/L	Giving the opportunity to the learners to guess and elicit the new structure highlighting rules	W board	a/v

Tutorial session

Objective : The learner will be able to share his opinion and give his point of view freely on different issues.

Material : Dictionaries, the student books.

Domain : oral

Stage one : The teacher helps his PPS to remember some useful vocabulary people use when they express their opinions like :

- I think/believe (or I don't think/believe)
- In my opinion , it's right/wrong (or quite right/ quite wrong)
- I approve of/ disapprove of (strongly approve of /strongly disapprove of)
- It's a quite idea(thing).....

Stage two :

Teacher : There are other vocabulary frequently used when we deal with arguments.

The teacher provides his PPS with dictionaries and invites them to do task 16 page 116 and tasks 18 and 19 page 117.

Stage two :

The teacher writes on the board part 4 from the mother's letter ,then invites them to read it ,list all the pieces of advice in this part

Discuss them with your partners and say your opinion about them using the vocabulary learnt before.

The listening script part 4 :

Another value is work. Learn to love work! But even if you have to leave school one day and work, don't stop learning and studying. Read much, and study languages. You will broaden your mind and multiply its content. When I was in prison in Germany during WWII, I read the letters of Maria. There's a letter to her daughter Marie Antoinette, the last queen of France. If you see that book, I remember that I made up my mind at that time to write you this letter about my experiences and give you some helpful advice. Extracts adapted from: "Women of Prague" by W. A.
